A Catch on the MidnightCats by Mr. Mich: Wise

Ye Cats that at midnight spit Love at each other who best feel the Old Lady Grimalkin with Gooseberry Eyes, when a Kitten knew

Men ride many miles, Cats tread many Tiles, but hazard, both Pangs of a passionate Lover. I appeal to your Scratches and something for why she was wise, You find by experience the hazard their Necks in the fray, only Cats if they fall from a Tails, Love but no they turns more Tails and to Love that's soon o'er, Pus, Pus lasts not long but turns to Cat-whore.

House or a Wall keep their Feet, mount their Tails, mount they Tails and a-way.

We Cats when assembled at Midnight together, for innocent Purring,

II

If Dogs be in Kennel, all fast in their straw, we march, and we meaw, but if they surprise us, and put us to flight, we fret, fret, and we spit, fret,

Purring, for innocent Purring, Purring, in Moonshiny weather:

meaw, meaw whitt-out scratch or a Claw, fret, spit, spit, give a squall, squall and good
