2. Not the most perfect Rules they gave
Could shew one Sin forgiv'n;
Nor lead a Step beyond the Grave;
But thine conduct to Heav'n.
3. I've seen the End of what we call
Perfection here below;
How short the Pow'rs of Nature fall
And can no further go!
4. Yet Men would fain be just with God,
By Works their Hands have wrought;
But thy Commands, exceeding broad,
Extend to ev'ry Thought.
5. In vain we boast Perfection here,
While Sin defiles our Frame;
And sinks our Virtues down so far,
They scarce deserve the Name.
6. Our Faith, and Love, and ev'ry Grace
Fall far below thy Word;
But perfect Truth and Right'ousness
Dwell only with the Lord.
