1. 'Tis good, Lord, to be here, thy glory fills the night; thy face and garments, li - jah stand, thy mes - sen - gers of old.

2. 'Tis good, Lord, to be here, thy beauty to be hold, where Mo - ses and E - glo - ri - fied, and our re - demp - tion see.

3. Ful - fil - ler of the past, prom - ise of things to be, we hail thy bo - dy see thy king - dom come; we fain would hold the vi - sion bright, and make this hill our home.

4. Be - fore we taste of death, we we may not re - main; but since thou bidst us leave the mount, come with us to the plain.

5. 'Tis good, Lord, to be here, yet like the sun, shine with un - bor - rowed light. This edition produced by Andrew Sims, 2020
