

Then We Grow

La Verna Bringhurst

Darrell T. Crowther

Playfully ♩ = 96

Just a lit - tle bit of wa - ter fall - ing soft - ly on the ground makes a
 But he'll on - ly grow a lit - tle if the rain for - gets to fall, if the
 A seed may be all wrink - led, white, or dark or dusk - y brown, but our seed be - gin to wig - gle, tho' his sleep may be quite sound, and the warmth of sun - light shin - ing makes him sun - shine be - comes hid - den why, he won't grow up so tall, and the ground he runs his roots through needs to Fath - er knows po - ten - tial of great mag - ni - tude is found in the most un - like - ly look - ing in the want to peek and see what the world is hold - ing for him, and thus he be - gins to be. Then he keep our friend well fed, for it takes more than cour - age to peep shy - ly from his bed. Just to most for - got - ten seed, for our Sa - vior seeks the low - ly to per - form the great - est deeds. Then they grows, then he grows, the seed be - gins to grow.

 grow, just to grow, the seed be - gins to grow.
 grow, then they grow, yes we be - gin to grow!
 (Then he grows) (Then he grows)