Let us, my Lesbia, live and love

A 3 part glee

Anonymous translation of the Latin poem by Gaius Valerius Catullus (ca. 84 BC – ca. 54 BC)

John Stafford Smith (1750-1836)

Moderato

[Counter-tenor]

Let us, my Les-bia live and love, nor cast a mo-ment's thought away, whe-ther a pee-vish world ap-prove, or what they think, or what they say.

[Tenor]

Bass

Let us, my Les-bia live and love, nor cast a mo-ment's thought a-

A.

way, whe-ther a pee-vish world ap-prove, or what they think, or what they say.

T.

The sun that sets shall rise a-gain, but when our short lived day is o'er, one long e-ter-nal

B.

The sun that sets shall rise a-gain,
Let us then live and love to-day and kiss the fleet-ing hours a-way, kiss the fleet-ing hours a-way.

kiss the fleet-ing hours a-way, kiss, kiss, kiss, kiss, love to live and live to love and kiss the fleet-ing hours a-way, love to live and live to love and kiss the fleet-ing hours a-way,