The Ladies

Stephen Samuel Stratton
(1840-1906)

Alexander Campbell Mackenzie
(1847-1935)

Tenor I

Tenor II

Bass I

Bass II

Piano

The Ladies - Mackenzie
sister, ff or wife, mf The solace and joy of our life, f The solace and joy of our sister, ff or wife, mf The solace and joy of our life, f The solace and joy of our sister, ff or wife, mf The solace and joy of our life, f The solace and joy of our sister, ff or wife, mf The solace and joy of our life, f The solace and joy of our sister, ff or wife, mf The solace and joy of our life, f The solace and joy of our life, p To woman, f like Love, ever young.

life, p To woman, f like Love, ever young, like Love, ever young, Let the life, p To woman, f like Love, ever young, like Love, ever young, Let the life, p To woman, f like Love, ever young, like Love, ever young, Let the

The Ladies - Mackenzie
Let the toast with all honour be sung!

From her eyes, from her eyes, Cupid flash-es his darts, That

The Ladies - Mackenzie
thill, _p while they capture our hearts, _p while they capture our hearts, _p while they capture our hearts, _p while they capture our hearts, _p while they capture our hearts, _p while they capture our hearts.