Henry A. Lambeth
(1822-1895)

Henry Albert Lambeth (1822-1895) was born at Alverstoke, Hampshire, England, and studied under the notable musicians Samuel Sebastian Wesley, Thomas Adams, Sterndale Bennett, Henry Smart, and Sir George Smart. He held a number of organist positions in the Portsmouth area before becoming city organist at Glasgow, Scotland, after the Corporation installed a Gray & Davison organ at the City Halls. He also served as organist at St. Mary's Episcopal Church and Park Parish Church. He became the conductor of the Glasgow Choral Union and was founder/conductor of the Glasgow Select Choir, which became known as the Balmoral Choir after twice performing at Balmoral by royal command of the Queen. His choirs traveled throughout Britain and his music was well received with reviews published throughout the country commending "H. A. Lambeth's choirs." He was also editor of "The Scottish Book Of Praise." About 2/3 of the songs are Scottish folk songs with many arranged for four voices. Besides his part-songs, his compositions are mostly for organ and piano, some songs and chants, and hymn tunes. He died in Glasgow.

Cam' ye by Athol, lad wi' the philabeg,
Down by the Tummel, or banks o' the Garry?
Saw ye the lads, wi' their bonnets an' white cockades
Leaving their mountains to follow Prince Charlie.

*Follow ye, follow ye, whae wadnae follow ye?
Lang hae ye lo'ed an' trusted us fairly,
Charlie, Charlie, whae wadnae follow thee!
King o' the Hieland hearts, Bonnie Prince Charlie.*

I hae but ae son my gallant young Donald,
But if had I ten, they would follow Glengarry;
Health to MacDonald and, gallant Clan Ronald,
For they are the men that would die for their Charlie.

I'll to Lochiel, and Appin, and kneel to them;
Down by Lord Murray, and Roy o' Kildarlie;
Brave MackIntosh he shall fly to the field wi' them;
They are the lads I can trust wi' my Charlie.

Down thro' the Lowlands, down wi' the Whigamore,
Loyal true Higlanders, down wi' them rarely!
Ronald and Donald drive on wi' the brave claymore,
Over the necks of the foes o' Prince Charlie.

James Hogg (1770-1835)

Niel Gow (1727-1807) was a famous Scottish fiddler.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
