Tr.  5

1. Soldiers of the cross, a - rise: Lo, your Captain from the skies Holding forth the glittering prize, Calls to vic - to - ry:

C.

2. Who the cause of Christ would yield? Who would leave the battlefield? Who would cast away his shield? Let him basely go:
3. By the mercies of our God, By Emmanuel's streaming blood, When alone for us he stood, Ne'er give up the strife:

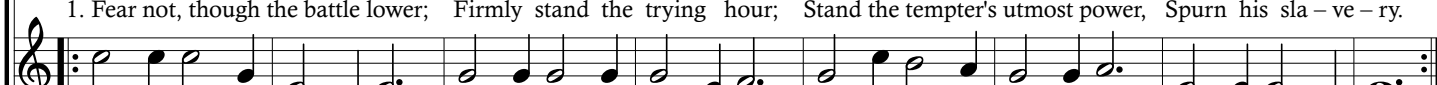

T.  8

4. By the woes which rebels prove, By the bliss of ho - ly love, Sinners, seek the joys a - bove; Sinners, turn and live:

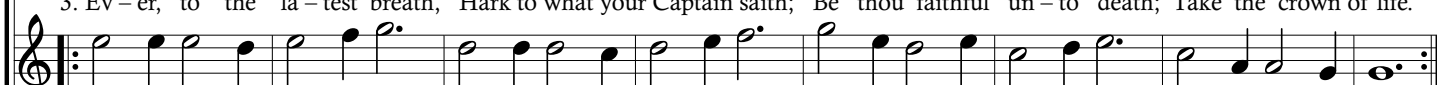

B.

Tr.  10 15

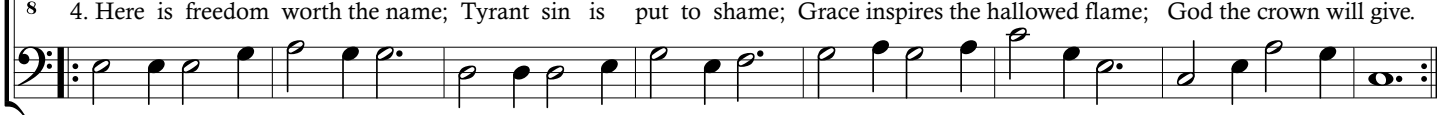

1. Fear not, though the battle lower; Firmly stand the trying hour; Stand the tempter's utmost power, Spurn his sla - ve - ry.

C.

2. Who for Zi - on's King will stand? Who will join the faithful band? Let him come with heart and hand, Let him face the foe.
3. Ev - er, to the la - test breath, Hark to what your Captain saith; Be thou faithful un - to death; Take the crown of life.

T.  8

4. Here is freedom worth the name; Tyrant sin is put to shame; Grace inspires the hallowed flame; God the crown will give.

B.

Walker's arrangement of this Scottish traditional tune for three parts was included in The Sacred Harp, p. 152, from 1844 through 1911. It was also arranged by William Hauser in his Hesperian Harp, 1848.
