- 2) Their faith is sure sinne to endure, grounded on Christ, the corner stone:
Moved wich none ill, but standeth still, stedfull like to Mount Sion.
- 3) And as about Jerusalem, the lmightie hills do it compasst,
So that no enemies come to them to hirt the tome in any case,
- 4) So God in deed in every neede, his faithful people doth defend:
Standing them by assurely, from time forth world without end.
- 5) Right wise and good is our Lord God, and will not suffer certainly:
The sinners and ungodles rod, to tarry upon his family.
- 6) Least they also from God should foe, falling to sinne wickednesse:
O Lord defend worlde without ende, thy christli sock through thy goodnesse.
- 7) O Lord doe good to Christians all, that stedfest in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall, and in false doctrine dayly side.
- 8) Such will the Lord scatter abroad, with hipocrites throwne down to hell:
God will them send paines without end, but Lord graunt peace to Israel.
- 9) Glory to God the father of might, and to the Sonne our Saviour:
And to the holy Ghost whose light shine in our hearts and u succour.
- 10) That the right way from day to day wee may walke and him glorifie:
With harts desire all that are heere, worship the Lord and say Amen.
