E. J. Hopkins
(1818-1901)

1. Lord, it be - longs not to my care whe -
2. Christ leads me through no dark - er rooms than
3. Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet thy
4. Then I shall end my sad com - plaints and
5. My know - ledge of that life is small, the ther I die or live: to love and serve thee he went through be - fore; he that un - to God's bless - ed face to see; for if thy work on wear - y, sin - ful days, and join with the tri - eye of faith is dim; but 'tis e - nough that is my share, and this thy grace must give.

king - dom comes must en - ter by this door.
earth be sweet, what will thy glo - ry be!
um - phant saints that sing my Sa - viour's praise.
Christ knows all, and I shall be with him.
