The musical score consists of three parts: Ch 1, Ch 2, and Brass. The vocal parts (Ch 1 and Ch 2) are in soprano range, indicated by the treble clef. The vocal parts sing a four-measure phrase. The first measure starts with a half note followed by eighth notes. The second measure has eighth notes followed by a sixteenth-note cluster. The third measure features eighth notes and sixteenth-note clusters. The fourth measure concludes with eighth notes and sixteenth-note clusters. The brass part (Brass) is in bass range, indicated by the bass clef. It provides harmonic support, primarily consisting of sustained notes and simple rhythmic patterns corresponding to the vocal entries.

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is labeled 'Ch 1' and contains three treble clef lines. The middle staff is labeled 'Ch 2' and contains three treble clef lines. The bottom staff is labeled 'Brass' and contains one bass clef line. Each staff has a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. Measure 245 shows rests for all parts. Measures 246, 247, and 248 feature eighth-note patterns. Measure 246 starts with a single eighth note on the first line of Ch 1, followed by eighth-note pairs on the second and third lines. Ch 2 follows a similar pattern. The Brass section begins in measure 246 with eighth-note pairs on the first line, transitioning to eighth-note groups in measure 247, and then to eighth-note pairs again in measure 248. Measure 248 concludes with a dynamic marking of f.
