In thousand forms I see thine Image

Novalis (Friedrich von Hardenberg, 1772-1801)
English Words by John Bernhoff

Adagio

In thousand forms I see thine image, Sweet

Mary, see thy heavenly face, be hold thy beauty in each image: In

Ped.
prayer my soul be-held thy grace. The sorrows

molto

that our souls in-HER-it, are banished like a dream

molto

of night thy smile hath poured in-to my spir-IT the bliss of Heaven's, of Heaven's E-TER-nal Light.