Translation

Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle, or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?
Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.
He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour, and hath not slandered his neighbour.
He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.
He that sweareth unto his neighbour and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.
He that hath not given his money upon usury, not taken reward against the innocent.
Whoso doeth these things shall never fall.
(Psalm 15, Book of Common Prayer)

Editorial Conventions

The nomenclature of the voice-parts follows the Tudor convention.
The prefatory staves at the start of the piece show the original clef, staff signature, mensuration symbol and first note for each voice.
Editorial accidentals are placed above the notes concerned.
The underlay in the edition is principally that of source A below. The original spelling of the source has been retained and its repeat signs expanded using italicised text.

Notes on the Readings of the Sources

In each section below the references are grouped by source. Each reference to a bar or group of bars is separated by an oblique stroke. Within these references multiple readings in the same voice are separated by a comma and readings in different voices by a semicolon. The order within each entry is: (1) bar number(s); (2) voice; (3) reading of the source (with any subsequent bar numbers in brackets). Pitches are in capital letters, preceded by a number where necessary, e.g. ^{2}A = second note A in the bar or group of bars. Except for staff signatures, pitches quoted are those of the edition.
