

Song XX.

The second Song of Esay. [Isaiah 12]

George Wither

The Hymnes and Songs of the Church, 1623

Orlando Gibbons

[original notated a 4th higher]

1. Lord, I will sing to Thee: For, thou dis - pleas - ed wast:
2. Thou art my health, on whom A feare - lesse Trust I lay:
3. And with re - jouc - ing now, Sweet wat - ers we con - vay
4. Oh, sing un - to the Lord: His Name and workes pro - claime:
6. Oh, sing a - loud all ye, Oh Si - on hill that dwell!

And yet with - drew'st thy wrath from me, And sent me com - fort hast.
For thou oh Lord, thou art be - come My strength, my Song, my Stay.
Forth of those Springs, whence Life doth flow; And thus we there - fore say;
Yea, to the Peo - ple beare re - cord, That glo - rious is his Name.
For, lo, Thy Ho - ly - One in thee Is great, oh Is - ra - el.