

Five Partsongs from the Greek Anthology

Op. 45, No. 3

arranged for S.A.T.B. by the composer

After many a dusty mile

Edward Elgar

(1857-1934)

Five Part-songs from the Greek Anthology, Op. 45 (1902)

Using translations of Greek verse by English poets, these miniatures were originally written for male voices and not intended for the popular choral competitions. Published by Novello in 1903, they were first performed in 1904 by the London Choral Society. Many choirs quickly embraced them for their color, humor and technical challenges. Elgar's own mixed choir arrangements of the set were subsequently published in 1922.

After many a dusty mile,
Wanderer, linger here awhile;
Stretch your limbs in this long grass;
Through these pines a wind shall pass
That shall cool you with its wing.
Grasshoppers shall shout and sing,
While the shepherd on the hill,
Near a fountain warbling still,
Modulates, when noon is mute,
Summer songs along his flute;
Underneath a spreading tree,
None so easy-limbed as he,
Sheltered from the dogstar's heat.
Rest; and then, on freshened feet,
You shall pass the forest through.
It is Pan that counsels you.

From the Greek Anthology (anon.)
Translated Edmund Gosse (1849-1928)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
