day will break a - new.

On that night in Bethlehem,
A stable dark and bare,
But one bright star shone overhead
To lead the trav'lers there:
*'Til the morning star shall rise,
'Til the morning star shall rise,
'Til the morning star shall rise
And day will break anew.*

Turned away from every door,
'Til one, with mercy bless'd,
Could offer up a bed of straw
To let the weary rest:
'Til the morning star shall rise...

Shepherds watched their flocks of sheep
Alone through nights so long,
Then all above the hillside bleat
Rang out the angels' song:
'Til the morning star shall rise...

When they saw the glowing sky,
The shepherds shook with fear,
But then, "Fear not!" the angels cried,
"A brand new dawn draws near!"
'Til the morning star shall rise...

Then, as one, the shepherds sped,
And travelled through the night,
To kneel beside a manger bed
Beneath the star so bright:
'Til the morning star shall rise...

Let your hope shine through the night:
The dark won't overcome!
Help us see, in midnight skies,
The promised new day's sun:
'Til the morning star shall rise...
