To Celia

Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes

Ben Jonson (1572–1637)

Traditional

Arr.: H. Elliot Button (1861–1925)

Copyright © by CPDL / 2.07.2014 / J. B., Novello 1907 ask for wine. The thirst that from the soul doth rise doth with-ered be; but thou there-on didst only breathe, and wine. be;

ask for wine. The thirst that from the soul doth rise doth with-ered be; but thou there-on didst only breathe, and
wine. be;

ask a drink di-vine; but might I of Jove’s sent’st it back to me, since when it grows and

ask a drink di-vine; but might I of Jove’s sent’st it back to me, since when it grows and

nec-tar sip, I would not change for thine. smells, I swear, not of it-self but thee!

nec-tar sip, I would not change for thine. smells, I swear, not of it-self but thee!

mf
rall.
ap tempo
pp
p pp
pp

mf