

Psalm 81 NV

Wellingborough

C.M.

Brady & Tate, 1691

Thurlow Weed, 2013

1.To God, our ne - ver fail - ing strength, with loud ap - plaus - es
10. "The Lord thy God am I, who thee brought forth from E - gypt's
11. But they, my chos - en race, re - fused to hear - ken to my
12. So I, pro - voked, re - signed them up to ev - ery lust a
13. O that my peo - ple wise - ly would my just com - mand - ments
14. Then should my hea - vy judge - ments fall on all them that op -
15. Their en - em - ies and mine should all be - fore my foot - stool
16. All parts with plen - ty should a - bound; with fi - nest wheat their voice; Nor would re - bel - lious Is - rael's sons ame me their hap - py choice.

prey, And in their own per - verse de - signs per - mit - ted them to stray.
heed! And Is - rael in my right - teous ways with pi - ous care pro - ceed!
pose, And my a - veng - ing hand be turned a - gainst thy num' - rous foes.
bend; But as for them, their hap - py state should ne - ver know an end.
field: The bar - ren rocks, to please their taste, should rich - est hon - ey yield."/>

4
sing; and joint - ly make a cheer - ful noise to Ja - cob's aw - ful King.
land: 'Tis I that all thy just de - sires sup - ply with lib' ral hand."
voice; Nor would re - bel - lious Is - rael's sons ame me their hap - py choice.
prey, And in their own per - verse de - signs per - mit - ted them to stray.
heed! And Is - rael in my right - teous ways with pi - ous care pro - ceed!
pose, And my a - veng - ing hand be turned a - gainst thy num' - rous foes.
bend; But as for them, their hap - py state should ne - ver know an end.
field: The bar - ren rocks, to please their taste, should rich - est hon - ey yield.