D minor
German Psalter, 1537

1. The man is blest that God doth fear, And that His laws do love indeed. His seed on earth God will uprear, And bless such as from him proceed.

2. Unto the righteous doth arise, In troubles joy, in darkness light: Compassion always in his eyes, And mercy always in his sight:

3. And surely such shall never fail, For in remembrance had is he: No tidings ill can make him quail, Who in the Lord sure hope doth see:

4. He did well for the poor provide, His righteousness shall still remain: And his estate with praise abide, Though that the wicked man disdain:

1. His house with good He will fulfill, His righteousness endure shall still.

2. Yea, pity moveth such to lend, He doth by judgment things expend.

3. His heart is firm, his fear is past, For he shall see his foes down cast.

4. Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he. And so consume his state to see.
