Victory

Isaac Watts, 1717
(Psalm 18, Part 2)

86. 86. (C. M.) Transcribed from The Continental Harmony, 1794.

William Billings, 1794

B♭ Major

---

Treble

Counter

Tenor

Bass

---

1. To thine al mighty arm, we owe The triumphs of the day, Thy terrors, Lord, confound the foe and melt their strength away.

'Tis by Thine aid our troops prevail, And break united powers, Or burn their boasted fleets, Or scale the proudest of their towers.

Public Domain.