

Blest be the name of Jacob's God

Joseph Haydn

Psalm 31. Ver: 21. 22. 23. 24.

This edition by Edmund Gooch released into the public domain, September 2012.

Text: James Merrick,
on Ps. 31, vv. 21-24

The Prayer of the Psalmist being accepted, he exhorts the good to rely on God's help alone.

Blest be the name of Ja - cob's God, Whose love, in hap - piest hour be stowed, Has
A - while with un - col - lect - ed mind, As ban - ished from thy sight, I pined; But Ye souls, de - vot - ed to his fear, With thank - ful love your God re - vere, Who
Be strong, be sted - fast: so your mind From him its full sup - port shall find; Ye

Blest be the name of Ja - cob's God, Whose love, in hap - piest hour be stowed, Has
A - while with un - col - lect - ed mind, As ban - ished from thy sight, I pined; But Ye souls, de - vot - ed to his fear, With thank - ful love your God re - vere, Who
Be strong, be sted - fast: so your mind From him its full sup - port shall find; Ye

Blest be the name of Ja - cob's God, Whose love, in hap - piest hour be stowed, Has
A - while with un - col - lect - ed mind, As ban - ished from thy sight, I pined; But Ye souls, de - vot - ed to his fear, With thank - ful love your God re - vere, Who
Be strong, be sted - fast: so your mind From him its full sup - port shall find; Ye

9

giv'n with - in my lot to fall The strong - built ci - ty's guar - ding thou thy ser - vant's prayer hast heard, In an - guish of my heart pre - wakes your cho - sen train to guard, And deals to pride its just re - saints, that in his care con - fide, Nor own, nor ask a help be -

giv'n with - in my lot to fall The strong - built ci - ty's guar - ding
thou thy ser - vant's prayer hast heard, In an - guish of my heart pre - wakes your cho - sen train to guard, And deals to pride its just re - saints, that in his care con - fide, Nor own, nor ask a help be -

giv'n with - in my lot to fall The strong - built ci - ty's guard - ing
thou thy ser - vant's prayer hast heard, In an - guish of my heart pre - wakes your cho - sen train to guard, And deals to pride its just re - saints, that in his care con - fide, Nor own, nor ask a help be -

Blest be the name of Jacob's God (Joseph Haydn)

16

wall, the strong - built ci - ty's_ guard - ing wall.
 ferred, in an - guish of_ my_ heart_ pre - ferred.
 ward, and deals_ to pride_ its_ just_ re - ward.
 side, nor own, nor ask_ a_ help_ be - side.

wall, the strong - built ci - ty's_ guard - ing wall.
 ferred, in an - guish of_ my_ heart_ pre - ferred.
 ward, and deals_ to pride_ its_ just_ re - ward.
 side, nor own, nor ask_ a_ help_ be - side.

wall, the strong - built ci - ty's_ guard - ing wall.
 ferred, in an - guish of_ my_ heart_ pre - ferred.
 ward, and deals_ to pride_ its_ just_ re - ward.
 side, nor own, nor ask_ a_ help_ be - side.

Notes: The first verse only of the text is underlaid in the source, where the subsequent verses given here are printed after the music for this setting. This setting is attributed to 'Dr. Haydn' in the source.