Israel Holdroyd, 1722

Tr. 1. The mighty God, th'e-ter-nal hath thus spoke, And all the world he will call and provoke! E'en from the east, and so forth to the west:

C. 2. Devouring fire shall go before his face, A tempest great shall round about him trace. Then shall he call the earth and heavens bright,

T. 3. Con-si-der this, ye that forget the Lord, And fear not when he threatens with his word, Lest without help he spoils you as a prey:

B.

Tr. 1. Out of Zi-on, which place he liketh best, God will appear, in beauty most ex-cel-lent, Our God will come be-fore that long time be spent.

C. 2. To judge his folk with eq-ui-ty and right. Saying, Go to, and now my saints as-sem-ble; My pact they keep, their gifts do not dis-sem-ble.

T. 3. But he that of-fers thanks, praises alway, Saith the Lord God, and he that walk-eth this trace, I will teach him God's saving health to em-brace.

B.
