

Isaac Watts, 1719

Psalm 41

88. 88. (L. M.)

Transcribed from The Columbian Harmonist No. 1, 1793.

D minor

William Read, 1793

Sympathy

5

Tr.
1. Blest is the man whose bowels move, And melt with pity to the poor; Whose soul by sym- pa -
2. His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head; When drought and pes - ti -

C.
1. Blest is the man whose bowels move, And melt with pity to the poor; Whose soul drought by and
2. His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head; When drought and

T.
1. Blest is the man whose bowels move, And melt with pity to the poor; Whose soul by sym- pa -
2. His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head; When drought and pes - ti -

B.
1. Blest is the man whose bowels move, And melt with pity to the poor; Whose soul drought by and
2. His soul shall live secure on earth, With secret blessings on his head; When drought and

10

Tr.
thi - sing love, Whose soul by sym - pa - thi - sing love, Feels what his fel - low saints en - dure.
lence and dearth, When drought and pes - ti - lence and dearth, A - round him mul - ti - ply their dead.

C.
sym - pa - - thi - - sing and love, Feels what his fel - low saints en - dure.
pes - pa - ti - - lence and dearth, A - round him mul - ti - ply their dead.

T.
thi - sing love, Whose soul by sym - pa - thi - sing love, Feels what his fel - low saints en - dure.
lence and dearth, When drought and pes - ti - lence and dearth, A - round him mul - ti - ply their dead.

B.
sym - pa - - thi - - sing and love, Feels what his fel - low saints en - dure.
pes - pa - ti - - lence and dearth, A - round him mul - ti - ply their dead.

15