

Trust

1. Je - sus, my Sav - ior and my Lord, 'Tis good to trust Thy name; Thy
2. Kind are the words that Je - sus speaks, To cheer the droop - ing saint; "My power, Thy faith - ful - ness and love, Will ev - er be the same.

grace suf - fic - ient is for you, Though na - ture's powers may faint."
1. Weak
2. "My

1. Weak as I am, yet through Thy grace, I
2. "My grace its glo - ries shall dis - play, And
Weak as I am, yet through Thy grace, I
"My grace its glo - ries shall dis - play, And as I am, yet through Thy grace, grace its glo - ries shall dis - play,
through shall Thy dis - grace,
play,

Tr.  20

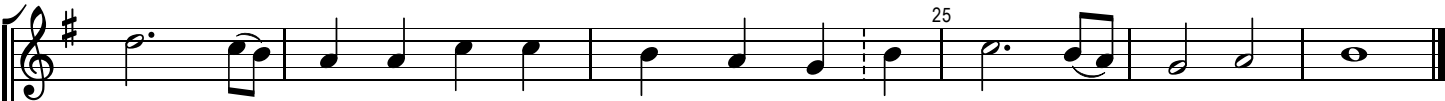

C.

T.

B.  8

And smil - ing, tri - umph in Thy name, A - mid the rag - ing Your weak - ness shall the tri - umphs tell Of bound - less power and can all things per - form:

 make your griefs re - move;

Tr.  25

C.

T.

B.

And smil - ing, tri - umph through Thy name, A - mid the rag - ing storm.
 "Your weak - ness shall the tri - umphs tell Of bound - less power and love."

storm.
 love."

storm.
 love."