

Consolation

John Leland, 1754-1841

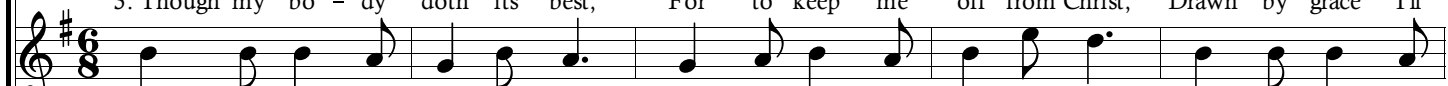

77. 77.

Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805.

G Major

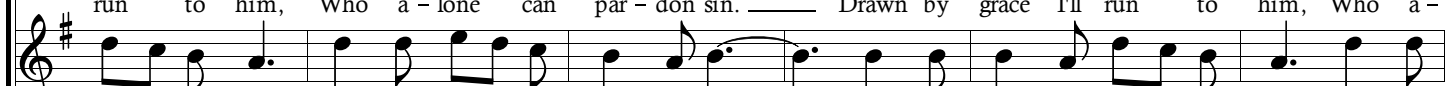

Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

Tr.  5
1. Come and taste a - long with me Con - so - la - tion run - ning free From our Fa - ther's
2. Good - ness here, and good - ness there, Com - forts flo - wing eve - ry - where; By his con - stant
3. Though my bo - dy doth its best, For to keep me off from Christ, Drawn by grace I'll

T.
4. Now I'll go to hea - ven's door, Ask - ing for a lit - tle more; Je - sus gives a
5. Sin - ful na - ture lurks in vice, Can - not stop the works of grace; While there is a
6. Now I'll go re - joi - cing home From the ban - quet of per - fume; Glea - ning ma - ny

B.
7. Good - ness run - ning like a stream Through the new Je - ru - sa - lem; By his con - stant
8. Hea - ven's here and hea - ven's there, Com - forts flo - wing eve - ry - where; This I bold - ly

Tr.  10
wor - thy home, Swee - ter than the ho - ney - comb. — From our Fa - ther's wor - thy home, Swee - ter
brea - king forth, Glad - dens earth and hea - ven both. — By his con - stant brea - king forth, Glad - dens run to him, Who a - lone can par - don sin. — Drawn by grace I'll run to him, Who a -

T.
dou - ble share, Cal - ling me a glea - ner there. — Je - sus gives a dou - ble share, Cal - ling God to give, And a sin - ner to re - ceive. — While there is a God to give, And a on the road, Drop - ping from the mouth of god. — Glea - ning ma - ny on the road, Drop - ping

B. brea - king forth, Glad - dens earth and hea - ven both. — By his con - stant brea - king forth, Glad - dens can pro - test, For my soul has fot a taste. — This I bold - ly can pro - test, For my

Tr.
than the ho - ney - comb.
earth and hea - ven both.
lone can par - don sin.

T.
me a glea - ner there.
sin - ner to re - ceive.
from the mouth of God.

B.
earth and hea - ven both.
soul has got a taste.