

Far Away

A Londonderry Air

Thomas R. G. Jozé (1853-1924)

Thomas Richard Gonzalvez Jozé (1853-1924) was born in Dublin, Ireland. He was a chorister at Christ Church Cathedral in Dublin and became deputy organist. He graduated from the University of Dublin and held organist positions at St. Paul's Church, Glengarry, and Christ Church, Leeson Park, Dublin. He became professor of organ and harmony at the Irish National Academy of Music and the University of Dublin and was music examiner for a number of institutions. He composed piano music, cantatas, hymns, and part songs.

Dr. George Sigerson (1836-1925) was an Irish physician, politician and poet, a leader in the Irish Literary Revival of the late 19th century.

As chimes that flow o'er shining seas,
When morn alights on meads of May,
Faint voices fill the western breeze,
With whisp'ring songs from far away.
Oh, dear the dells of Dunavore,
A home in od'rous Ossory,
But sweet as honey running o'er,
The golden shore of Far Away.

There sings the voice whose wondrous tune
Falls, like a diamond shower above,
That in the radiant dawn of June,
Renew a world of Youth and Love,
Oh, fair the founts of Farranfore
And bright is billowy Ballintrae,
But sweet as honey running o'er,
The golden shore of Far Away.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please refrain from using an edition as a basis for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
