Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

Tr.

1. Now in a song of grateful praise, To my dear Lord my voice I'll raise; With all the saints I'll join to tell, That Je-sus has done all things well. With all things well.
2. All worlds his glorious power confess, His wisdom all his works express; But O! his love what tongue can tell, My Je-sus has done all things well. But all things well.
3. How sove-reign, merciful and free, Has been his love to sin-ful me! He plucked me from the jaws of hell, My Je-sus has done all things well. He all things well.

T.

4. I spumed his grace, I broke his laws, And then he un-der-took my cause; To save me though I did re-bel, My Je-sus has done all things well. To all things well.
5. And since my soul hath known his love, What blessings hath he made me prove! Mercy which doth all praise excel, My Je-sus has done all things well. Mer- all things well.
6. When-er my Sa-vior or my God, Hath on me laid his gen-tle rod; I know in all that has be-fell, That Je-sus has done all things well. That all things well.

B.

7. Though many a flaming fiery dart, At-tempt their le-vel at my heart; With this I all my rage re-pel; My Je-sus has done all things well. With all things well.
8. Sometimes the Lord his face doth hide, To make me pray and kill my pride; Yet on my heart it still doth dwell, That Je-sus has done all things well. Yet all things well.
9. Soon I shall pass this vale of death, And in his arms re-sign my breath: Yet then my hap-py soul shall tell, How Je-sus has done all things well. Yet all things well.
10. And when to those bright worlds I rise, And join the an-them with the skies; A-bove the rest, this note shall swell, My Je-sus has done all things well. A- all things well.
