

A sure foundation

Stuart Moffatt

Martin Luther 1483-1546

$\text{♩} = 90$

S&A

A sure foun - da - tion God has laid On which he builds the church of Christ. The pro - phets and the Je - sus the great de fen - der came To claim his peo - ple as his own. Once bound they were by Je - sus now sits at God's right hand From vexed by Sa - tan's cun - ning art, But Je - sus failed not In Je - sus Christ God's glo - ry shines And shine it will for e - ver - more. His peo - ple a king -
 The sure foun - da - tion which God laid Is where he builds his dwell - ing place. His peo - ple safe - ly a - po - stles His word have laid be - fore us all. His word de - clares the truth: One man for us has sin's strong power He saves them in his dark - est hour. When Sa - tan did his worst On the cross was he to per - form The task for which he had been born. The Fa - ther saw the Son, The o - be - di - ent ever - y man What e'er of ill or good they've done. They all shall bow the knee; Con - fess Je - sus is

T&B

8

 - dom of priests Shall sing his praise and him a - dore. This is the gift of Christ Who pur - chased by his ga - thered in There of - fer him their songs of praise. No - thing is there to harm For all is peace and come, The re - al man of God And God's a - noin - ted one. Je - sus of this man is the name.

14

 cursed To break the power of sin And then to en - ter in The king - dom which he had been given
 One, With his work was he pleased God's wrath it was ap - peased, His peo - ple then stood ju - sti - fied.
 Lord, The righ - teous he shall take, The wi - cked he for sake, His jus - tice seen on Je - sus's stake.
 blood, The re - al Lamb of God Who took a - way their sins, The One Lord Je - sus whom they love.
 calm; A world of love pre - pared For those for whom he died, And Je - sus is their good Shep - herd.