

Nightfall in Winter

From "English Lyrics" - Set 8 - Number 2

Words by Langdon Elwyn Mitchell

Editor: John Henry Fowler

(Revision: 4 - 3 - 2008)

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry

(1848 - 1918)

Slow
♩ = 60

pp

Cold is the 4

air, The woods are bare And brown; the herd Stand in the 8

yard. The frost doth fall; And round the hill

12
The hares move slow; The home - ward

tranquillo

15

crow, A - lone and high, Cros - ses the sky

p

18

— All si - lent - ly. The quick streams freeze;

p

21

The mov - ing trees Are still; for now No breeze will

pp

p

24

blow; The wind has gone With the day, down, And

p

dim. e poco rit.

27 a tempo

clouds are come Bear - ing the gloom. The yel - low grass, In the pp a tempo

31

clear glass Of the bright pool Grows soft and dull. The wa - ter's eye That

p

35

held the sky Now gaz - es quite; And now the light On the 38 allargando

cold hill Fad - eth, un - til The gi - ant mass Doth seem to pass From near to 41

far;

pp

45

p

The clouds ob - scure The sky with 49

gloom. The night is come,

53

The night is come.