

Christ rising again from the dead

Anthem for Easter Day
Rom. 6:9-11 & I Cor. 15:20-22

Thomas Tomkins
Musica Deo Sacro 1668

The first system of the musical score consists of five staves. The top four staves are vocal parts: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. Each of these staves contains a whole rest in every measure, indicating that the vocalists are silent during this section. The fifth staff is the basso continuo line, which begins with a whole rest in the first measure, followed by a half rest in the second measure, and then a melodic line starting on a G-sharp in the third measure. The lyrics "Christ ri - sing a - gain from" are written below the bass line, with "ri" under the second measure and "sing a - gain from" under the third and fourth measures.

The second system of the musical score begins with a measure number '6' above the first staff. The first staff is the basso continuo line, which contains the lyrics: "— the dead, Christ — ri - sing a - gain from the dead now di - eth". The lyrics are distributed across the measures: "— the dead," in the first measure, "Christ —" in the second, "ri - sing a - gain from" in the third, "the dead" in the fourth, and "now di - eth" in the fifth. The remaining four staves (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) contain musical notation for the vocal parts, including various note values, rests, and accidentals.
