1. Hail this joyful day's return,
2. Like to cloven tongues of flame
3. Lord, to you your people bend;
4. You who did our forebears guide,

hail the Pentecostal morn,
on the twelve the Spirit came—unto us your Spirit send;
with their children still abide;

morn when our ascended Lord tongues, that earth may hear their call, blessings of this sacred day
grant us pardon, grant us peace, on his Church his Spirit poured! Alleluia!

fire, that love may burn in all. Alleluia!
grant us, dearest Lord, we pray. Alleluia!
till our earthly wranglings cease. Alleluia!

This edition produced by Andrew Sims, 2021