

Snow Song

Sara Teasdale (1884-1933)

To Dragon & Dawn
Duration: approx. 3:00

Michael Winikoff

♩ = 70
p

SA
Fai-ry snow fai-ry snow Fai-ry snow fai-ry snow blo-wing blo ____ wing e-very-where, fai - ry snow blo - - wing e - - very -

TB

7
blo ____ wing blo-wing e - very - where Would that I too, could fly would that I

where blo-wing e - very - where Would that I could fly would that 12

mp p
too could fly Light-ly light-ly through the air ____ light - ly light-ly through the air ____

I could fly Light - - ly through the air light - ly through the 17

mf rit. a tempo
air ____ light - ly light-ly through the air through ____ air

air the air light - - ly through air

22
pp
cry - stal star cry - stal
Like a wee cry-stal star like a wee cry-stal star I shoul(d) drift _ I should

Like a wee cry-stal star like a wee cry-stal star

like a wee cry - - - stal

27
blow ____ I shoul(d) drift _ I should blow ____ Near, more near to my dear star I should drift I should blow ____ near more near to my 32

near more near to my dear Where he comes through the snow where he comes through the dear, more near to my dear through snow he comes through the snow where he comes through the 37

snow Where he comes through the snow through snow snow he comes through snow through snow

(no rit)

42

mf
 I should fly to my love I should fly to my love Like a flake in the
 I should fly to my love I should fly like a storm like a flake in the storm I should die I should die flake like a flake in the flake like a flake a flake in the storm I should die I should

48

53

I should die On his lips that are warm die I should die On his lips that are warm

57

on his lips that are warm on his lips that are warm that are warm warm lips that are warm his lips his lips that are

62

warm that are warm warm that are warm warm warm warm warm warm