

Delaware

Transcribed from The Middlesex Harmony, 1795.

Samuel Babcock, 1795

Treble

1. In aw - ful state the conquering God A - scends his shi - ning throne, While tuneful angels sound a - broad The victories he has won.

Tenor

2. I would be - gin the mu - sic here, And so my soul should rise. Oh for some heavenly notes, to bear My spi - rit to the skies!

Bass

Tr.

While tuneful an - gels sound a - broad The vict - ories he has won. Now let me rise and join their song And be an

T.

Oh for some heav - en - ly notes, to bear My spi - rit to the skies! There, ye that love my Sa - vior, sit; There I would an - gel too: My heart, my hand, my ear, my tongue, Here's joy - ful work for you! Here's joy - ful work for you!

B.

Tr.

T.

fain have place A - mong your thrones, or at your feet, So I might see his face. So I might see his face.

B.