Tr. 1. The Lord my Shepherd is, I shall be well supplied; Since he is mine and I am his, What can I want beside? Since he is mine and I am his,
2. He leads me to the place Where heav'nly pasture grows, Where living waters gently pass, And full sal-vation flows. Where li-ving wa-ters gently pass,
3. If e'er I go a-stray, He doth my soul reclaim; And guides me in his own right way, For his most ho-ly name. And guides me in his own right way, For his most ho-ly name.

C. 1. The Lord my Shepherd is, I shall be well supplied; Since he is mine and I am his, Since he is mine and I am his, What can I want be-

Tr. 1. I am his, What can I want beside? 4. While he affords his aid I cannot yield to fear;
2. gen-tly pass, And full sal-va-tion flows. Though I should walk through death's dark shade,
3. own right way, For his most ho-ly name. My Shepherd's with me there.

C. 1. -side? What can I want beside? 5. In sight of all my foes, Thou dost my table spread;
2. flows. And full sal-va-tion flows. My cup with blessings overflows,
3. name. For his most ho-ly name. And joy exalts my head.

T. 1. Since he is mine and I am his, What can I want be-side? 6. The bounties of thy love Shall crown my following days;
2. Where living wa-ters gent-ly pass, And full sal-va-tion flows. Nor from thy house will I remove,
3. And guides me in his own right way, For his most ho-ly name. Nor cease to speak thy praise.
