

I'll Be Satisfied

11 11. 11 9.
Charles A. Tindley, 1919

Dedicated to Sergeant John W. Tindley
Transcribed from New Songs of Paradise, 1934.

A<sup>b</sup> Major
Charles A. Tindley, 1919

1. What if all the world was giv - en un - to me, In the sight of men, how ex -
2. Compliments are pleasant, those who thus are bless'd, Kindly smiles and greet - ings
3. Honor and po - si - tion may your fortune be, Life with tears and heart - aches
4. Pal - a - ces and mansions you may never own, In your earth - ly path - way

1. - alt - ed would I be? If I have not Je - sus when I come to die,
2. bring us hap - pi - ness; In the gloomy shad - ows, when the end is nigh,
3. may you nev - er see; All of these will van - ish when you come to die,
4. hum - ble and a - lone; If you have the gift that mon - ey cannot buy,

1. All the world can nev - er sat - is - fy.
2. All our earth - ly friends can - not sat - is - fy. Tho' I possess no treasures here below,
3. On - ly Je - sus Christ will sat - is - fy.
4. When all else have failed it will sat - is - fy.

Tho' I but few life's pleasures ev - er know, With the gift of heav - en,

Jes - us cru - ci - fied, I'll be sat - is - fied, I'll be sat - is - fied.