

View me Lord, a work of thine

The First Book of Ayres (c.1613)

THOMAS CAMPION
Arr. Joseph Knapicius

S & A

1) View me Lord, a work of thine,
2) But my soul still sur - - feits so
3) Cleanse me Lord that I may kneel
4) Worl - - dly joys like sha - - dows fade,
5) In thy word Lord is my trust,

Shall I then lie drown'd in night?
On the poi - son'd baits of sin,
At thine al - tar pure and white,
When the heav'n - ly light ap - - pears,
To thy mer - cies fast I fly,

Might thy grace in me but shine,
That I strange and ug - ly grow,
They that once thy mer - cies feel,
But the cov'n - ants thou hast made
Though I am but clay and dust,

T & B

13

I should seem made all of light.
All is dark, and foul with in.
Gaze no more on earth's de light.
End - - less, know not days, nor years.
Yet thy grace can lift me high.
