

Song. XXII.

The Prayer of Hezekiah. Esay [Isaiah] 37. 15.

George Wither

The Hymnes and Songs of the Church, 1623

Orlando Gibbons

1. O Lord of Hoastes, and God of Is - ra - el!
2. Lord bowe thine eare; to heare at - ten - tive bee;
3. Lord, true it is, that Lands and King - domes all
4. Mans worke they were & men de - thron'd them have.

3

Thou who be-tweene the Che - ru - bins dost dwell; Of all the world thou Lift up thine eyes, and daigne, Oh Lord, to see What words Se - na - che -
Are to the King of A - shur brought in thrall: Yea, he their Gods in -
Us there-fore from his power vouch - safe to save; That all the King-doms one - ly art the King, and Heaven and Earth un - to their forme didst bring.

5

rib hath cast a - broad; And his proud Mas - sage to the liv - ing God.
to the fire hath throwne: For Gods they were not, but of wood and stone.
of the world may see, That thou art God, that one - ly thou art hee.