

We sing the glorious conquest AMNS 313 Melody: Ellacombe 7 6. 7 6. D.

We sing the glorious conquest before Damascus' gate,
when Saul, the Church's spoiler, came breathing threats and hate;
the ravening wolf rushed forward
full early to the prey;
but lo, the Shepherd met him,
and bound him fast to-day.

O glory most excelling
that smote across his path!
O light that pierced and blinded
the zealot in his wrath!
O voice that spake within him
the calm reproofing word!
O love that sought and held him the bondman of his Lord!

O Wisdom, ordering all things in order strong and sweet, what nobler spoil was ever cast at the Victor's feet?
what wiser master-builder e'er wrought at thine employ than he, till now so furious thy building to destroy?

Lord, teach thy Church the lesson, still in her darkest hour of weakness and of danger to trust thy hidden power: thy grace by ways mysterious
the wrath of man can bind, and in thy boldest foeman thy chosen saint can find.
