1. Lord Christ, who on thy heart didst bear the bur - den
2. thy pa - tience can - not know de - feat, thy pi - ty
3. O bro - ther Man, for this we pray, thou bro - ther 4. that we may care, as thou hast cared, for sick and 5. that ours may be the ho - ly task to help and of our shame and sin, and now on high dost stoop to share the will not be de - nied, thy lov - ing - kind - ness still is great, thy Man and sov - 'reign Lord, that we thy breth - ren, day by day, may lame, for deaf and blind, and free - ly share, as thou hast shared, in bless, to heal and save; this is the hap - pi - ness we ask, and fight with - out, the fear with - in;

ten - der mer - cies still a - bide.
fol - low thee and keep thy word;
all the sor - rows of man - kind;
this the ser - vice that we crave. A _____ - men.
