

Winthrop

Transcribed from Harmony of Harmony, 1802

1. Whom then in heav'n, but thee alone. Have I, whose fav - or I re - quire? Throughout the spa - cious earth there's none That
2. For they that far from thee re - move, Shall in - to sudden ru - in fall, If after oth - er gods they rove, Thy

1. Whom then in heav'n, but thee alone. Have I, whose fav - or I re - quire? Throughout the spa - cious earth there's none That
2. For they that far from thee re - move, Shall in - to sudden ru - in fall, If after oth - er gods they rove, Thy

1. Whom then in heav'n, but thee alone. Have I, whose fav - or I re - quire? Throughout the spa - cious earth there's none That
2. For they that far from thee re - move, Shall in - to sudden ru - in fall, If after oth - er gods they rove, Thy

1. Whom then in heav'n, but thee alone. Have I, whose fav - or I re - quire? Throughout the spa - cious earth there's none That
2. For they that far from thee re - move, Shall in - to sudden ru - in fall, If after oth - er gods they rove, Thy

1. I beside thee can de - sire. My trem - - bling flesh and a - - ching heart May often fail to suc - cor me, But
2. vengeance shall destroy them all. But as for me, 'tis good and just: That I should still to God re - pair; In

1. I beside thee can de - sire. My trembling flesh and a - - ching heart May often fail to suc - cor me, But
2. vengeance shall destroy them all. But as for me, 'tis good and just: That I should still to God re - pair; In

1. I beside thee can de - sire. My trem - - bling flesh and a - - ching heart May often fail to suc - cor me, But
2. vengeance shall destroy them all. But as for me, 'tis good and just: That I should still to God re - pair; In

1. I beside thee can de - sire. My trem - - bling flesh and a - - ching heart May often fail to suc - cor me, But
2. vengeance shall destroy them all. But as for me, 'tis good and just: That I should still to God re - pair; In

25 30

Tr.
 1. God shall inward strength impart, And my e - ter- nal portion be. ___ And my e - ter- nal portion be, And my e - ter- nal portion be.
 2. him I always put my trust, And will his wondrous works declare. ___ And will his wondrous works declare. And will his wondrous works de-clare.

C.
 1. God shall inward strength impart, And my e - ter- nal portion be. ___ And my e - ter- nal por - - - tion be.
 2. him I always put my trust, And will his wondrous works declare. ___ And will his wondrous works de - clare.

T.
 1. God shall inward strength impart, And my e - ter- nal portion be. ___ And my e - ter - - - - - nal por - tion be.
 2. him I always put my trust, And will his wondrous works declare. ___ And will his won - - - - - drous works de - clare.

B.
 1. God shall inward strength impart, And my e - ter- nal portion be. ___ And my e - ter - - - - - nal por - tion be.
 2. him I always put my trust, And will his wondrous works declare. ___ And will his won - - - - - drous works de-clare.