My love dwelt in a Northern land,
A dim tower in a forest green
Was his and far away the sand,
And a gray wash of the waves were seen.

The woven forest boughs between
And through the Northern

And oft that month, we watch'd the moon, Wax great and white o'er wood and lawn, And oft that month, we watch'd the moon Wax great and white o'er wood and lawn, And oft that month, we watch'd the moon, Wax great and white o'er wood and lawn.

The passages of vocal accompaniment to be sung as softly and smoothly as possible without accent.
